

Waddi Wind Farm Community Reference Group member selection process

Tilt Renewables is seeking Expressions of Interest (EOI) for 8 members to join the Waddi Wind Farm Community Reference Group (CRG). The EOI submission deadline is 28/07/2025.

A selection panel, consisting of representatives from Tilt Renewables and the chair has been established to review and assess the submitted EOI application forms. The selection panel has been formed to review and assess the EOI forms submitted.

The following process will be used to select 8 members for the CRG.

1. After the EOI submission deadline, Tilt Renewables will:

- Review the EOIs to ensure they meet the mandatory eligibility criteria. Any EOIs that do not meet these criteria will be flagged for the selection panel to decide if they should be excluded from assessment.
- Package up the EOIs and issue to the selection panel.

2. The selection panel will review the EOI forms and assess each submission in relation to the applicants:

- Interest in becoming a CRG member and availability to participate.
- Knowledge, skills and strengths, which will be brought to the CRG.
- Ability to connect with others in their community.

Each selection panel member will evaluate each submission using the following assessment criteria to ensure the applicant meets the assessment criteria (as outlined above).

- Very strongly meets criteria
- Strongly meets criteria
- Meets criteria
- Somewhat meets criteria
- Does not meet criteria

3. The selection panel will convene to discuss the EOI submissions and reach a consensus on the final combined assessment.

During this discussion, all aspects of the submission will be considered, including:

- Whether the CRG Terms of Reference have been accepted by the applicant.
- Whether the applicant reflects a willingness to engage respectfully during meetings, a capacity to listen to diverse viewpoints, and a commitment to transparency and maintaining confidentiality (where required).

- The length of time the applicant has lived in the region.
  - Other interests that the applicant will bring to the table.
4. The selection panel will inform applicants on whether their application has been successful or not. If applicants would like feedback on their application, they can email waddiwindfarm@tiltrenewables.co.
